

CHARTING SUITE

Interactive charting library for desktop and mobile integration

MORE INFO ⓘ

Interactive Data's innovative Charting Suite helps advisors and clients analyse the financial information they require – wherever they need it.

Charting is integral to quickly analysing financial markets and providing support for key investment decisions. More and more, users require flexibility in chart types, technical indicators and comparison options, accessible via a range of devices.

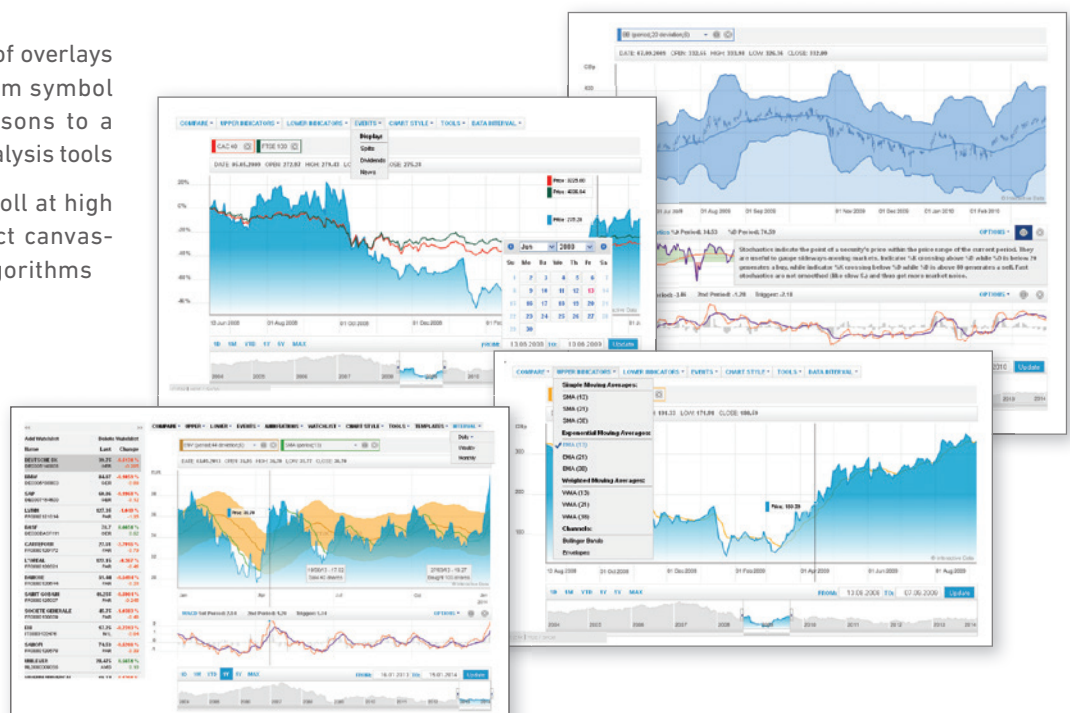

To help meet these demands, Interactive Data has created a suite of customisable charting products for both advisors and clients that can be hosted as components within a firm's desktop and mobile platforms. The suite of capabilities addresses multiple charting needs, from advanced interactive chart analysis tools to basic charts providing a quick snapshot of major indices and other benchmarks via a desktop browser, tablet or smartphone.
