JEWISH JOURNEY IN LITHUANIA & LATVIA

Led by Prof. Yale Strom & Elizabeth Schwartz

MAY 12 - 23, 2025

Embark on a transformative Jewish Heritage tour through Lithuania, where history, music, and culture converge to create an unforgettable experience. Join Prof. Yale Strom, Elizabeth Schwartz, and fellow travelers on a journey of discovery and remembrance.

ON OUR JOURNEY, WE WILL:

- Trace the vibrant history of Lithuanian Jews dating back to the 14th century.
- Walk through the medieval Jewish Quarter of Vilnius, once dubbed the "Jerusalem of Lithuania," and delve into poignant sites like the Vilna Gaon Museum of Jewish History and the Romanesque-Moorish Choral Synagogue.
- Experience the soulful melodies of Lithuanian Jewish music with captivating performances by renowned musicians Prof. Yale Strom and Elizabeth Schwartz. Enjoy musical interludes throughout the tour, connecting with the rich cultural heritage of Litvak music.
- Pay homage to the resilience of Lithuanian Jews at poignant sites like the Memorial Museum of Paneriai and the Lost Shtetl Museum, which vividly preserve the memory of the vibrant Jewish communities that once thrived in Lithuania.
- Engage in hands-on activities such as learning traditional Lithuanian dances at Kaunas Castle and exploring the history of clock construction at the Museum of Clocks in Klaipėda.
- Forge meaningful connections with local Jewish communities in Vilnius, Kaunas, and Klaipėda. Join in Kabbalat Shabbat and festive Shabbat dinners, culminating in a heartfelt farewell dinner in Riga.
